

VACANCY

Member Working Group Politics

We are looking for a new member of the Working Group (WG) Politics! The WG Politics is responsible for the political profile of ECPYouth. It takes the lead on ECPYouth' political campaigns, motions for resolutions for the ECPYouth and ECPM GA and has a close look on EU policies related to the core values of ECPYouth (Odessa Declaration).

Who we are:

The European Christian Political Youth (ECPYouth) is an association of youth political organizations from all over Europe. We are the independent youth organization of the European Christian Political Movement. We aim to reflect and work on Christian democratic politics in Europe from an explicit Christian social view. We focus on the human being in its relationship to God, other people and the creation. We see this relational thinking as the heart of Christian democracy. We are convinced that young people should play a key role in politics, seeking what is best for our societies.

Who you are:

We are searching for candidates with the following profiles:

- Interest for Christian Democratic values;
- Understanding of the concept of the ECPYouth network;
- Analytical, critical and constructive thinking;
- Business and/or political and strategy experience;
- Strong team player skills to work with the Board and the members of the WG Politics.

Minimum Work Load:

Candidates must be available to dedicate at least one year (and a maximum of two years) towards the work of the Working Group Politics, with an expected minimum of four hours of work per week. The position is non-paid.

Reimbursement

Travel costs to one ECPYouth event / meeting of the WG Politics per year will be reimbursed.

Eligibility criteria:

Eligible candidates are adults under the age of 35 and below. The current composition of the WG Politics in mind, we especially encourage candidates from Eastern European countries to apply.

Application process:

We require applicants to send a short cover letter and CV to the ECPYouth Secretary, Lizzie Francis (francis@ecpyouth.eu). Also if you have questions regarding this vacancy, please don't hesitate to contact Lizzie.
